

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED:

If you are processing as any of the following visa classes please submit the documentation listed below: IR5; F4.

An original Birth Certificate and Marriage Certificate from the petitioner must be provided to the National Visa Center. If this document is not submitted, this will result in a delay in the processing of your visa.

Supplement for additional information-Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

Police Certificate needed at interview:

Each applicant aged 18 years or older living in the Dominican Republic must bring an updated/current police certificate with them at the time of their interview.

Note: If you previously provided a Dominican Republic police certificate to the National Visa Center, you must still present an updated/current police certificate at the time of your interview.

Availability of Police Certificates:

A certificate, called a "Certificate of No Judicial Records" (Certificado de No Antecedentes Judiciales), is obtainable by both Dominicans and non-Dominicans 18 years or older who permanently reside in or have resided in the Dominican Republic. Interested parties must apply in person at any office of the Prosecutor General (Procuradora Fiscal) throughout the country. They must present a Dominican national identification card (cedula), 2 passport-sized photographs and the fee in cash (330 Dominican pesos as of April 2007). A photocopy of both sides of the Dominican national identification card is also required. The certificate is usually ready the same day and is handed directly to the interested party for presentation during the visa interview.
