

NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS

Keep in mind NVC is collecting all fees and scanned copies of all forms and civil documents so any reference to missing or necessary documents will be taken care of by NVC.

Please be aware that the following items are prohibited from being brought into the embassy at the time of your interview: cell phones, backpacks, weapons or food

Due to security constraints, there are two checkpoints that applicants must clear before entering post's consular section. Applicants will need to bring their appointment letters and passports and submit to security screening.

Applicants are requested to promptly appear for their appointment times due to security constraints.
