

The Consular Section at U.S. Embassy Lima will contact the applicant, petitioner, and/or attorney by mail upon receipt of an approved I-129F petition in Lima.

You may not schedule a K-1 visa interview appointment until that time.

For reference, this is a list of documents required for the K-1 visa interview. More instructions will be provided upon receipt of the approved petition.

- The $265 visa fee.
- DS-160 form.
- Original birth certificate.
- Certificate of criminal and judicial antecedents.
- Police certificate.
- Two 5 x 5 cm. photographs taken within the last six months.
- Divorce decree(s), if applicable.
- Medical examination (instructions provided once approved petition arrives in Lima).
- Evidence of financial support.
- Evidence of relationship.