

Report to Congress on Posting of the Afghan Special Immigrant Visa Quarterly Report on the Department of State's Website
Section 1219 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2014 (P.L. 113-66)

The Department of State (State), the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), and other U.S. government (USG) departments and agencies involved in the Afghan Special Immigrant Visa (SIV) program are committed to helping Afghans who have taken significant risks to support our military and civilian personnel. Congress, under Section 602(b) of the Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009, as amended, requires this quarterly report to review statistical data on nationals of Afghanistan who have applied for status as special immigrants.

How many Afghan SIVs were issued in the third quarter (Q3) of Fiscal Year (FY) 2023 (April 1, 2023, to June 30, 2023)?

1,368	4,848	6,216	25,313	13,187

<sup>1</sup> Total number of visas issued to SIV principal applicants overseas combined with SIV numbers used through domestic adjustments of status since permanent numbers became available on November 25, 2015.

<sup>2</sup> Unused numbers remaining for principal applicants are preliminary and subject to change. They are accurate as of the date of publication and account for recaptured numbers.

What efficiency improvements have been made to Afghan SIV processing?

Since eliminating its post-Chief of Mission (COM) visa pre-processing backlog as of January 3, 2023, the National Visa Center (NVC) has maintained a processing time of fewer than 10 business days to review incoming document submissions at Step 9 in the visa processing stage. The Afghan SIV (ASIV) unit continued to expand its bulk processing methods and processed 17 percent more COM approval applications during the third quarter of FY 2023 than in the prior quarter.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and State are working to improve the processes to share content electronically to facilitate faster issuance of lawful permanent resident cards (“green cards”) to SIV recipients upon arrival in the United States.

What is the average USG processing time for Afghan SIVs and how many cases are processed in that time?

The stages and steps in the Afghan SIV application process are outlined below and include the current average processing time for each step, including the time required by the relevant USG entities. This statistic captures total USG processing time in calendar days, beginning when the applicant first expresses interest in the program to the NVC and ending with the date of visa issuance at a U.S. embassy or consulate. It does not capture time taken for those steps in the SIV process that are outside the control of the USG as that depend solely on the applicant’s initiative. However, even within each step below identified as under the control of the USG, there may be time – often significant time – spent waiting on applicant or third-party action not attributable to the USG entities involved. For example, since the U.S. Embassy in Kabul suspended operations on August 31, 2021, applicants have had to designate a U.S. embassy or consulate (IV post) outside Afghanistan where they may appear in order to have their visa interviews scheduled; therefore, the average processing time at Step 10 includes the days pending the applicant’s designation, which is time not under the control of the USG (see footnote 16). Step 4 also involves, in some instances, time spent waiting for input from third parties on the verification applicant information (see footnote 8). Therefore, the average processing time listed below overestimates the total processing time solely attributable to the USG entities involved.

SIV Processing Steps<sup>3,4</sup>
Stage	Step	Description	Average processing time in calendar days	Number of Cases Processed
COM application process	1	Applicant submits COM application package to State's NVC. <sup>5</sup>	Applicant-controlled	N/A
	2	NVC reviews documents for completeness.	6	65,503 <sup>6</sup>
	3	NVC sends completed application package to the ASIV Unit. <sup>7</sup>	1	6,069

<sup>3</sup> Processing steps are for SIVs authorized under section 602(b) of the Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009, as amended. Afghan nationals processed under 602(b) are given the SQ SIV classification.

<sup>4</sup> Previous versions of this report listed 14 steps. During the first quarter of FY 2022, Step 5 “The ACOM advises NVC if the application is approved. If approved, NVC immediately sends approval letter to applicant” was fully automated and no longer requires manual processing. For this reason, as noted in the report covering the first quarter of FY 2022, the Department will no longer include this step in reporting.

<sup>5</sup> At this stage, the applicant has contacted NVC to express interest in the program and provide the documents necessary to begin processing.

<sup>6</sup> This number reflects the number of case reviews conducted by the NVC within the quarter. The NVC counts a review each time an SIV applicant submits additional documents to complete their case. This number may be larger than the total number of cases pending at the NVC because an individual case might be reviewed multiple times in a single quarter.

<sup>7</sup> COM approval may be provided by the “appropriate Chief of Mission, or the designee of the appropriate Chief of Mission” (see Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009 (Public Law 111-8), Section 602(b)(2)(D)). The ASIV unit director was the COM’s designee throughout this reporting period. Since the COM dissolved the COM Committee on August 19, 2021, the ASIV Unit sends COM approval agendas directly to the COM designee for a decision.

COM application process	4	COM staff review the COM application and form DS-157 petition for special immigrant status and the COM or COM Designee makes a decision. The applicant is automatically informed of the decision. <sup>8</sup>	193 <sup>9</sup>	7,630
Form I-360 adjudication process	5	Applicant self-petitions to USCIS using Form I-360. <sup>10</sup>	Applicant-controlled	N/A
	6	USCIS adjudicates petition and sends to NVC if approved. <sup>11</sup>	39 <sup>12</sup>	226

<sup>8</sup> The COM approval process involves verifying the SIV applicant's ability to qualify for special immigrant status based on the information submitted in Step 1 above. This process may require input from third parties. Accordingly, the length of time spent at this stage may vary depending on the responsiveness of such third parties, as well as other factors.

<sup>9</sup> The rise in average processing time for Step 4 is due to the massive increase in cases that moved from NVC to the ASIV unit in recent quarters. Average processing time for Step 4 is expected to increase as the ASIV unit works to eliminate the backlog.

<sup>10</sup> Certain applicants, such as those already in the United States who had filed an unsigned DS-157 or applicants anywhere in the world who filed no DS-157, will need to file an I-360 to petition for special immigrant status. Additionally, applicants who filed an I-360 before July 20, 2022, are required to await a USCIS decision on their I-360; they may not switch to the DS-157 petition process.

<sup>12</sup> As of FY 2022 quarter four, the methodology for calculating the average processing time reflects the average time it took USCIS to adjudicate an I-360 petition completed in the quarter; the processing time which is calculated from the date USCIS receives the petition to the date a final adjudicative decision is rendered on the petition (i.e., approved, denied, or administratively closed). Petitions where a request for evidence (RFE) or notice of intent to deny (NOID) was sent to the petitioner prior to final decision are filtered out of the processing time calculation. The petitioner's response time to the RFE or NOID is not calculated as part of the USCIS processing time.

Visa interview process, including pre- and post-interview <sup>13</sup>	7	NVC sends instruction packet to applicant requesting standard immigrant visa documentation, including Form DS-260.	9	3,166
	8	Applicant submits required documentation to NVC.	Applicant-controlled	N/A
	9	NVC reviews documents for completeness and corresponds with applicant when additional documentation is needed.	6	31,445 <sup>14</sup>
	10	When the immigrant visa application is complete, and when the desired post of interview communicated to NVC by the applicant has interview availability, NVC schedules applicant for interview at a U.S. embassy or consulate. <sup>15</sup>	89 <sup>16</sup>	594

Applicants who obtain special immigrant status in the United States apply for adjustment of status with USCIS.

<sup>14</sup> As in Step 2, this number reflects the number of case reviews conducted by the NVC. The NVC counts a review each time an SIV applicant submits additional documents to complete their case. This number may be larger than the total number of cases pending at the NVC because an individual case might be reviewed multiple times per quarter.

<sup>15</sup> This step only addresses interviews scheduled by the NVC immediately following the case being documentarily completed. It does not include the interviews scheduled locally by an embassy or consulate following a case transfer from Embassy Kabul. Since the U.S. Embassy in Kabul suspended visa operations on August 31, 2021, NVC has been scheduling SIV applicants for visa interviews at any immigrant visa processing U.S. embassy or consulate in the world where the applicant is able to appear.

<sup>16</sup> This average processing time includes the time from when the application is complete until NVC schedules an interview. NVC schedules interviews for documentarily complete applicants who can appear at a designated immigrant visa processing post for an interview. In some cases, a lengthy period of time may elapse before an

	11	Applicant is interviewed and biometrics are collected by consular officer on the scheduled appointment date. Administrative processing, if needed, is initiated following the interview. <sup>17</sup>	N/A	1,904
	12	The applicant's case undergoes administrative processing, if required. <sup>18</sup>	23	2,165
Visa issuance to eligible applicants	13	Upon completion of administrative processing, the visa is issued if applicant is eligible.	Applicant-controlled	N/A applicant notifies NVC of their desired post of interview. Although the applicant's ability to travel to a third country post is outside State's control, this figure nonetheless includes the time periods during which applicants are documentarily complete but have not notified the Department of their desired immigrant visa processing post for an interview. Therefore, the average processing time for Step 10 is overinclusive and reflects time during which the applicant is not waiting for government-controlled action.

<sup>17</sup> Administrative processing may include a variety of security, fraud, or criminal background checks that are required before the visa may be issued.

<sup>18</sup> Line 12 totals include data for SIV applicants who completed administrative processing between July 1, 2022, and September 30, 2022. Average processing time for cases that remain pending cannot be calculated until they are completed. A high number in this field reflects older cases being completed, not older cases languishing.

<sup>19</sup> The statistics in this chart were formerly reported in business days in reports published April 2014 – April 2016. USG processing times do not factor in applicant-controlled steps. Overall processing times are greater than USG processing times.

Why are applications pending longer than nine months in USG-controlled stages of the SIV application process?

Many applications are not pending longer than nine months in government-controlled steps. As explained above, data for some government-controlled steps is overinclusive, which explains why processing times for some applications exceed nine months. Higher processing times are also a result of the unprecedented surge in applications following the U.S. military withdrawal from Afghanistan, particularly in Step 4. The Afghan SIV Unit continues to increase staffing and resources to reduce processing times at this Step.

How many SIV applications are pending as of June 30?

Step 1 – 70,775 principal applicants had submitted some, but not all, of the documents required to apply for COM approval.

Step 4 – 67,804<sup>20</sup> principal applicants were pending COM approval. These applicants submitted all their documents and were being reviewed for COM approval.

Step 6 – 43 principal applicants had Form I-360 petitions pending with USCIS.

Step 10 – 9,983 principal applicants and 47,908 derivative family members were pending scheduling of visa interviews. Applicants outside of Afghanistan may be interviewed at any U.S. embassy or consulate that adjudicates immigrant visa applications.

Step 12<sup>21</sup> – Applications for approximately 307 principal applicants and 331 derivative family members were undergoing administrative processing.

<sup>20</sup> The rise in number of principal applicants pending COM approval is due to the massive increase in cases that moved from NVC to the ASIV unit in recent quarters.

<sup>21</sup> Administrative processing times for incoming cases were within range, but overall case volume is climbing. The primary reason for the increasing case volume is other government agencies. State flagged delays with these agencies, identified a solution and implemented it; and believes that next quarter's case volume will be lower.

In Q3 of FY 2023, U.S. consular officers interviewed 1,903 Afghan SIV principal applicants with COM approval (this number does not include derivative family members). In FY 2023, 60 consular posts worldwide have interviewed at least one Afghan SIV applicant. Most of these interviews were conducted by the U.S. mission to Afghanistan in Doha, Qatar and U.S. embassies in Ankara, Türkiye; Islamabad, Pakistan; and Tirana, Albania.

The following chart shows the number of Afghan nationals interviewed in the Q3 FY 2023 for an SIV under the Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009, as amended.

Month	Principal Applicants	Derivative Family Members	Total
April	418	1,252	1,670
May	668	2,398	3,066
June	818	2,965	3,783
Total	1,904	6,615	8,519

How many denials were there in quarter three of FY 2023?

At the end of this quarter, the following numbers of applications were denied at one of the application stages:

4,221 Afghan principal applicants were deemed unqualified to receive COM approval or had the approval revoked during the third quarter of FY 2023. Applicants whose COM applications are denied or revoked may appeal the decision once within 120 days of notification, or thereafter at the discretion of the Secretary of State. In the third quarter of FY 2023, 709 appeals were adjudicated. Of the appeals adjudicated during this quarter, 277 were approved after the applicant submitted additional information.

USCIS denied 40 principal applicants' Form I-360 petitions during the second quarter of FY 2023.

What are the reasons for a COM denial?

Denial of a COM application generally occurs for one or more of the following reasons:

Failure to establish qualifying employment by or on behalf of the USG, or by the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) or a successor mission. Applications are denied for this reason if the applicant fails to establish qualifying employment. For information on qualifying employment, see the Department of State website at:

<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/immigrate/special-immg-visa-afghans-employed-us-gov.html>.

Insufficient documentation. Applications are denied for this reason if the applicant fails to provide a required document, or if there is a deficiency in a document provided by the applicant.

Failure to establish at least one year of employment by or on behalf of the USG, or by ISAF or a successor mission, during the period specified in section 602(b) of the Afghan Allies Protection Act of 2009, as amended.

Failure to establish providing faithful and valuable service to the USG. Applications denied for this reason generally have involved cases lacking the requisite positive recommendation or evaluation to establish faithful and valuable service as required by law. In some instances where faithful and valuable service was not confirmed, employment by or on behalf of the USG had been terminated for cause.

Derogatory information associated with the applicant that is incompatible with the requirements of the SIV program. This reason for denial generally relates to information that the applicant engaged in an unlawful, unethical, criminal, or terrorism-related activity.
