Notice: New procedure for picking up passport and visa packets from the U.S. Embassy in Haiti

The U.S. Embassy in Haiti recently updated their procedures for returning passports with issued visas and visa packets. Effective immediately, the adoptive parents or the individual traveling to the United States with the adopted child will be the only persons allowed to pick up the adopted child's passport and visa packet. Once the immigrant visa is issued, the Consular Section will email a scanned copy of the visa to the adoptive parents and their representatives in Haiti. This change applies to adoption cases only, and is intended to safeguard the passport, visa, and visa packet from misuse. Please note that the Embassy reserves the discretion to make other arrangements for individual cases.
