Pursuant to Section 104 of the Intercountry Adoption Act of 2000 (IAA) (Public Law 106-279), the U.S. Department of State submits the FY 2010 Annual Report on Intercountry Adoption (including information on both Convention and non-Convention adoptions). See Tab 1 for the elements of the report from IAA §104(b).

IAA §104(b) Report Elements. Statistical tables are found at Tab 2.

- §104(b) (1): Tables 1 and 2 report the number of adoptions involving immigration to the United States ("incoming adoptions").
- §104(b) (2): Table 3 reports the number of adoptions involving emigration from the United States ("outgoing adoptions").
- §104(b) (3): For FY 2010, adoption service providers (ASPs) reported no disrupted placements in Convention cases, i.e., cases in which there was an interruption of a placement for adoption during the post-placement (but preadoption) period. Table 4 summarizes additional disruption and dissolution information received pursuant to §422(b)(14) of the Social Security Act. See the footnote to Table 4 for reporting requirements in §422(b)(14) of the Social Security Act.
- §104(b) (4): Table 5 reports the average time to complete a Convention adoption.
- §104(b) (5): The current list of agencies accredited and persons approved is available on the home page of the Department's intercountry adoption website, www.Adoption.State.gov. Find the list under the link for Accredited Agencies.
- §104(b) (6): The Secretary has not temporarily or permanently debarred an agency or person.
- §104(b) (7): ASPs charged between zero dollars and $62,875 for Convention adoption services, with half charging less than $26,200. These fees are exclusive of foreign program fees and fees for travel, translation, care of the child, and other country-specific services, which vary significantly by country of origin. Table 6 reports by country of origin the median fees for such country-specific services.
- §104(b) (8): Fees for accreditation of agencies and approval of persons ranged from $2,000 to $12,000. The Council on Accreditation's accreditation fee is based on documented revenues from its intercountry adoption programs; Colorado's fee is based on the number of cases the applicant handles annually. Accrediting Entity fees are found at the following links: Council on Accreditation fees and Colorado Department of Human Services fees.

^{*} The IAA §205 amended Section 422(b) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 622(b)(14)) as follows: "(14) provide that the State shall collect and report information on children who are adopted from other countries and who enter into State custody as a result of the disruption of a placement for adoption or the dissolution of an adoption, including the number of children, the agencies who handled the placement or adoption, the plans for the child, and the reasons for the disruption or dissolution."

From Table 1, Haiti: The number of adoptions reported in this table does not reflect the approximately 1,090 Haitian children admitted as part of the Special Humanitarian Parole announced by Secretary Napolitano, U.S. Department of Homeland Security, on January 18, 2010, following the devastating earthquake in Haiti. The table reports immigrant visas issued to children adopted abroad or granted custody in the country of origin to U.S. citizens for the purpose of travelling to the United States to be adopted. None of the children who participated in the Special Humanitarian Parole received an immigrant visa and their parole is not reported in Table 1.

^{} Note that the widely reported case of the boy returned by his adoptive mother alone on a plane to Russia, his country of origin, is not included in this table. The table reports only disruptions, i.e., cases before the adoption is finalized in which the match does not work out and the child is returned to the care of the country of origin, and dissolutions, i.e., cases in which a full and final adoption is formally dissolved by the responsible court. In this case, there was a final adoption that had not yet been dissolved; hence, this case was not reported.
