Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application (DS-160)

Apply For a Nonimmigrant Visa

Welcome!

On this website, you can apply for a U.S. nonimmigrant visa. Filling out the application on our site is the first step in the process. After you submit your application, you can move on to the next steps, such as signing up for an interview.

Important Before You Start

1. Learn about Types of Visas
2. List of Documents and Information you will need
3. Interview Requirements
4. How to complete the application

Other people can assist you with your visa application. Note that under U.S. law (22 C.F.R. 41.193) you must electronically sign and submit your visa application unless you qualify for an exemption. Even if someone else helped you complete the application, you (the applicant) must click the "Sign Application" button, or your application may not be accepted.

Please be patient as you use this form. Download times may vary depending on your Internet connection speed.

Application Information

Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application (DS-160)

Application Information

Please record your Application ID in a safe and secure place.

If there are technical issues with the system, or you want to complete your application some other time, you can save your work and later, start where you left off. In order to access your application later, however, you will need: (1) your Application ID, and (2) the answer to the security question that you will choose on this page.

To choose a security question, pick the one you like the best from the dropdown list, type your answer to that question in the box below, and click “Continue.” Remember: In order to access your application later, you will need to know the answer exactly as you wrote it on this page.

You can also use your Application ID and security question to retrieve your Confirmation Page after you have submitted your application, or to use your previously provided application information to complete a new application at a later date.

If you do not plan to complete your application within the next 30 days, download your application to your computer by clicking the “Save” button at the bottom of the last completed page. Follow the instructions. When you are ready to complete your application, select “Upload an Application”. NOTE: Only download your application to a computer that cannot be accessed by anyone who does not have your permission to see or record your personal data. If you download your application a shared or public computer, such as a computer in a cyber cafe or library, your personal information may be able to be accessed by other users.

Note: Electronically submitting your DS-160 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.

Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application (DS-160)
Application ID AA000323WS

Sign and Submit

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing, and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, an additional information may be needed after Department of States personnel have reviewed this application.

By clicking “Sign and Submit Application” you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are sworn declarations made under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1745).

Additionally, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Office at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to temporary exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

Some visa applicants are required to undergo a medical examination with an authorized physician to assess visa eligibility consistent with INA Sections 212(a) and 211(f), and will be notified of the requirement. If you are notified and required to undergo a medical examination, failure to provide required information may cause delay or denial of your visa application. If required to undergo a medical examination, your medical examination information may be collected and temporarily stored in the eMedical system hosted, operated, and maintained by the Australian Department of Home Affairs. If your medical examination is collected in electronic, you will be requested to provide consent to its collection and temporary storage in such system, and being transferred to the U.S. government for the purpose of enabling the U.S. Department of State to determine your medical eligibility and for the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to undertake public health functions under the Public Health Service Act Section 325 and INA Section 212(a).

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI’s Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). If you wish to correct a record as it appears in the FBI’s CIEI Division Records System, you should follow procedures to change, correct, or update a record that are set forth in 28CFR, Part 12, 0.4. The photographs that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Once you have clicked “Sign and Submit Application” you will be unable to make changes. Electronically sign by clicking the button below after you have reviewed the information in your application and determined that it is correct. After signing the application, click "Next" to continue with the application.

You have indicated that you are travelling for less than one year because you are going to graduate. Please note that if you have less than one year to be married, you will have to apply for a special visa. If you do not submit your application by the deadline, your application may be subject to a permanent denial if you fail to meet the requirements of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Your application may be denied if it violates the policy of the United States Department of Homeland Security. If you are found to be inadmissible for one of the reasons listed above, your application may be denied if it fails to meet the requirements of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Your application may be denied if it violates the policy of the United States Department of Homeland Security.

Once you have completed your application and submitted it, you will receive a notification of your visa status.

Sign the following certificate before dating, electronically signing, and submitting your application.

Your signature is effective for 96 days of your admission into the United States. The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application is accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes.
