Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application (DS-160)

Application Information

Please record your Application ID in a safe and secure place.

If there are technical issues with the system, or you want to complete your application some other time, you can save your work and later, start where you left off. In order to access your application later, however, you will need: (1) your Application ID, and (2) the answer to the security question that you will choose on this page.

To choose a security question, pick the one you like the best from the dropdown list, type your answer to that question in the box below, and click “Continue.” Remember: In order to access your application later, you will need to know the answer exactly as you wrote it on this page.

You can also use your Application ID and security question to retrieve your Confirmation Page after you have submitted your application, or to use your previously provided application information to complete a new application at a later date.

If you do not plan to complete your application within the next 30 days, download your application to your computer by clicking the “Save” button at the bottom of the last completed page. Follow the instructions. When you are ready to complete your application, select “Upload an Application.” NOTE: Only download your application to a computer that cannot be accessed by anyone who does not have your permission to see or record your personal data. If you download your application to a shared or public computer, such as a computer in a cyber cafe or library, your personal information may be able to be accessed by other users.

Note: Electronically submitting your DS-160 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.

Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application (DS-160)
Application ID: AA000323WS

Sign and Submit

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete; an additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed this application.

By clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are sworn declarations made under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. 1746).

Additionally, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

Some visa applicants are required to undergo a medical examination with an authorized physician to assess visa eligibility consistent with INA Sections 212(a) and 212(f) and will be notified at the requirement. If you are notified and required to undergo a medical examination, failure to provide required information may cause delay or denial of your visa application. If required to undergo a medical examination, your medical examination information may be collected and temporarily stored in the ePass system hosted, operated, and maintained by the Australian Department of Home Affairs. If your medical examination is collected in electronic, you will be requested to provide consent to its collection and temporary storage in such system, and being transferred to the U.S. government for the purpose of enabling the U.S. Department of State to determine your medical eligibility and for the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to undertake public health functions under the Public Health Service Act Section 325 and INA Section 212(e).

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). If you wish to correct a record as it appears in the FBI’s CJS Division Records System, you should follow procedures to change, correct, or update a record that are set forth in Title 28, CFR, Section 12.34. The photographs that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Once you have clicked “Sign and Submit Application” you will be unable to make changes. Electronically sign by clicking the button below after you have reviewed the information in your application and determined that it is correct. After signing the application, click "Next" to continue with the application.

You have indicated that you are traveling for two or more purposes which could require more than one visa being issued. Please note that it may take up to six weeks to process your application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, as additional information may be needed, inter alia, contacts of past personal and travel history and the purpose of your travel.

By clicking “Sign and Submit application” you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation. Even if this application has been completed by someone other than yourself, your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the contents of this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief.

The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statement may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are sworn declarations made under penalty of perjury (18 U.S.C. 1014a).

Additionally, by clicking “Sign and Submit application” you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the U.S. consular officer at the port where you plan to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States. If you violate your visa, you may be found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You further understand that your adjustment of status to legal permanent resident is dependent upon your going to a U.S. consulate and, upon meeting all of the requirements of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. You are certifying that you understand that any false or misleading statement or false or misleading document that you have submitted may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation. You are certifying that you are legally free to marry, and if you are legally free to marry, you have informed the U.S. citizen who sponsored your partner within 90 days of your admission into the United States.

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI’s Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and identity protection systems), the fingerprints that are provided with your visa may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law enforcement purposes.

Once you have clicked “Sign and Submit application” you will be unable to make changes. Electronically sign by clicking the button below after you have reviewed the information in your application and determined that it is correct. After signing the application, click “Next” to continue with the application.

Sponsor or fiancee’s contact information

Your application indicates that you are applying for an visa. Pursuant to the Immigration and Nationality Act (INSA) you are required to submit a copy of an immigration petition. You should provide the names and contact information of the sponsor or fiancee, including the date the petition was filed, the number of the petition and keep a copy with you in case of your case.

I certify that I have received a copy of the Immigrant Petition as part of my application process.

I certify that I am legally free to marry and intend to marry FREE, a U.S. citizen, within 90 days of my admission into the United States.

Additional information:

Make sure that the following information is correct:

- Your name and address
- Your passport number and expiration date
- The number of people in your family that you are bringing with you

Thank you for your application.
