Embassy of the United States of America – Kabul, Afghanistan

To apply for Chief of Mission (COM) approval for the SIV program, the applicant must have regular access to email internet service, have the ability to scan all the required documents from the list below into PDF files, and be able to submit all the required documents via email to the following address: AfghanSIVApplication@state.gov. All information must be contained in one email. The email's subject line must contain the principal applicant's name as it is written in the passport and date of birth using the following format: DAY MONTH YEAR.

We recommend that you continue to use the same email address for all correspondence throughout the process.

Do not include family member information in the subject line. If a COM approval letter is issued, instructions will be provided on how to add a spouse and unmarried children, under age 21, to your case.

Please do not submit anything more than what is listed below unless we request you to do so. Specifically, do not submit photographs, certificates of appreciation, training certificates, resumes, or academic transcripts. These documents have no bearing on your COM approval application and will not be considered. You must submit all of the required documentation exactly as requested below or your application may be denied COM approval.

Applicants for COM approval must submit an application including, at a minimum, name, nationality, and an email address by December 31, 2016. However, only complete COM applications containing all required documents and information will be forwarded to U.S. Embassy Kabul for a decision by the Chief of Mission designee. Applicants who meet the December 31, 2016 deadline may provide additional required information or documentation following that date.
