

Report to Congress on Posting of the Iraqi Special Immigrant Visa (SIV) Quarterly Report on the Department of State's Website
Section 1218(g) of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2014
(P.L.113-66)

Consistent with Section 1218 (g) of the National Defense Authorization Act of 2014, the Department of State (State) and the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), in consultation with the Department of War (DoW), publish this report. State, DHS, and other U.S. Government (USG) departments and agencies involved in Iraqi SIV issuance continued the Iraqi SIV process, authorized under section 1244 of the Refugee Crisis in Iraq Act of 2007, as amended, during the reporting period of January 1 – March 31 (Q2 FY 2026). As of the end of Q2 FY 2026, 212 SIVs remain for Iraqi principal applicants.

How many Iraqi SIVs have been issued in the second quarter (Q2) of FY 2026 (January 1 – March 31)?

What efficiency improvements have been made to Iraqi SIV processing?

U.S. Embassy Baghdad suspended routine consular services on February 28 after the commencement of hostilities and conflict in the region surrounding Iran. The U.S. Mission to Iraq went on ordered departure status on March 2. Mission staffing was reduced to minimal and emergency only, focused on emergency services to U.S. citizens.

What is the average USG processing time for Iraqi SIVs and how many cases are processed in that time?

All steps in the Iraqi SIV application process are outlined below and include the average processing time for all involved USG entities during Q2 FY 2026. This statistic captures total USG processing time in calendar days, beginning when the applicant first expresses interest in the program to State's National Visa Center (NVC) and ending with the date of visa issuance at a U.S. embassy or consulate. It does not capture those steps in the SIV application process that are outside of USG control and that depend solely on the applicant's initiative. However, even within each step below that is identified as under USG control, there may be significant time spent waiting on applicant or third-party action not attributable to the USG entities involved. Therefore, the average processing time likely overestimates the total processing time attributable to the USG entities involved.

¹ Total number of visas issued to SIV principal applicants overseas combined with SIV numbers used through adjustments of status since the current allotment of permanent numbers became available on January 1, 2014.

² In April, State conducted an audit of SIV issuances and numbers used from January 1, 2014, through the end of Q4 FY 2025, including accounting for the actual number of applicants that travelled to the United States on their visas. The audit resulted in slight variations in the number of remaining visas now reflected in this table. Numbers remaining are preliminary and subject to change. They are accurate as of the date of publication and account for recaptured numbers.

³ Processing steps are for SIVs authorized under section 1244 of the Refugee Crisis in Iraq Act of 2007, as amended. This applies to Iraqi nationals in the SIV category, labeled under "SQ classification."

⁴ Previous versions of this report listed 14 steps. During the first quarter of FY 2022, Step 5 "U.S. Embassy Baghdad advises NVC if COM application is approved. NVC immediately sends approval letter to applicant. If any documents reveal that the applicant does not qualify for the program, the COM application is denied. It was fully automated and no longer requires manual processing. As such, State will no longer include information on this step in its reporting.

⁶ During this quarter, there were no cases completed at this stage.

⁷ The deadline for Iraqi principal applicants to submit new applications for COM approval was September 30, 2014. The Baghdad COM did not receive any new cases or appeals in the current quarter.

Visa Interview	9	NVC reviews documents for	8	74 ¹¹

⁸ For I-360 petitions adjudicated by USCIS January 1 – March 31.

⁹ The average processing time for the “1244 Iraqi SQ1 program” could not be calculated due to an absence of completed adjudications meeting the criteria to be included in the sample. This sample size is smaller than the number of petitions filed and adjudicated as it excludes petitions that were under applicant control due to Requests for Evidence (RFEs) or Notices of Intent to Deny (NOIDs).

¹⁰ The majority of applicants receive SIV status by going through the process explained in this chart. Applicants who obtain SIV status in the United States apply for adjustment of status from USCIS.

Certain applications may be pending longer than nine months due to administrative processing (Step 12). Administrative processing often involves interagency background checks which are essential to the integrity of the SIV application process and U.S. national security. State cannot require a third-party agency to complete its actions within a particular timeframe, potentially lengthening the time required to conclude administrative processing. In addition, applicants may delay in responding to requests for information required to complete administration processing. The average administrative processing time is 872 days, which reflects completed this step in Q2 FY 2026. Average processing time for remaining cases pending cannot be calculated until they are completed. A high number in this field reflects older cases being completed, not older cases languishing.

the work that State is doing to resolve complicated, long-pending cases, including temporarily assigning additional staff to the SIV portfolio. Of the 27 cases requiring administrative processing that were closed during the reporting period, 15 (56 percent) were created 2017-2024. The remaining 12 cases were created after 2024 and processed in 81 days on average. Resolving long-standing cases leads to an increased average when calculating processing times.

Other USG-controlled processing steps include visa document collection and pre-processing by the NVC (Steps 7 and 9), which contributed 4 and 8 days, respectively, to the average USG processing time this quarter (885 days).

How many SIV applications are pending as of March 31, 2026?

Step 1 – There were no new COM applications submitted by Iraqi principal applicants pending at NVC during this period. The deadline for Iraqis to apply for COM approval was September 30, 2014.

Step 6 – There was one Iraqi principal applicant who had a Form I-360 pending with USCIS.

Step 10 – There were two principal applicants and eight family members pending scheduling for a visa interview during Q2.

Step 12 – Applications for four principal applicants and one family member were undergoing administrative processing.

How many SIV applicants were interviewed in Q2 of FY 2026?

The deadline to apply for COM approval was September 30, 2014. There was one SIV principal applicant who, after COM approval, was scheduled for an interview in the second quarter of FY 2026.

The following shows the number of Iraqi applicants who executed an application for an SIV at a visa interview in the second quarter of FY 2026 under section 1244 of the Refugee Crisis in Iraq Act of 2007, as amended, after receiving COM approval:

Month	Principal Applicants	Derivative Family Members	Total
January	4	6	10

Month	Principal Applicants	Derivative Family Members	Total
February	1	9	10?
March	1	4	5
Total	6	19	25

How many denials were there in Q2 of FY 2026?

During the second quarter of FY 2026, the U.S. Embassy in Baghdad did not deny any SIV-SQ applicants because they were unqualified to receive COM approval. Applicants whose COM applications are denied or revoked can submit one appeal within 120 days of receiving the denial or revocation letter.

USCIS denied six principal applicant Form I-360s during the second quarter of FY 2026.

What are the reasons for a COM denial?

COM application denial generally occurs for one or more of the following:

- Failure to establish proof of employment by or on behalf of the USG. Applications are denied for this reason if the applicant fails to establish qualifying employment. For information on qualifying employment, see State's website at:
<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/us-visas/immigrate/special-immg-visas-iraqis-employed-us-gov.html>.
- Failure to establish one year employment by or on behalf of the USG March 20, 2003 – September 30, 2013.
- Failure to establish the provision of faithful and valuable service to the USG. Applications denied for this reason generally have involved cases lacking requisite positive recommendation or evaluation. In some instances where faithful and valuable service was not confirmed, employment by or on behalf of the USG had been terminated for cause.
- Derogatory information that is incompatible with the requirements of the SIV program. This reason generally relates to information indicating that the applicant engaged in an unlawful, unethical, criminal, or terrorism-related activity.
