How to prepare for your visa interview in Sydney, Australia

The U.S. Embassy in Canberra and the U.S. Consulates General in Perth and Melbourne do not process Immigrant and K visa applications. These applications are processed at the U.S. Consulate General in Sydney only.

Please refer to the below visa classification to assist you in preparing for your interview.

Diversity Visas

Fiancé\(e\) Visas

Immigrant Visas

Each person immigrating, regardless of age, is required to have a medical examination. The medical exam can only be conducted by one of the authorized Australian panel physicians, and cannot be conducted in the United States. The report must be valid at the time of your entry into the United States. The validity of the report is either three or six months from the date of the examination.

On the day of your interview please go to Level 10 of the MLC Centre for security check-in. Applicants are requested to bring as few personal items as possible with them to the interview. You should present yourself 15 minutes before your scheduled interview to clear through the security screening process. Once you pass through the security, you will be directed to the Consular office on Level 59. You should be available to spend up to 3 hours at the Consulate.

Rescheduling a visa interview

There may be a significant wait before the next available appointment, please attend the date already assigned, even if you do not have all the required documents. For preference visa categories, a visa number became available within the month you have been scheduled by NVC. There is no guarantee when the visa number will be available again.

Please refer to the Visas Bulletin before you decide to reschedule your interview.

To reschedule your appointment, please email our office, Subject: "Reschedule IV interview date" and advise several dates when you will be available for an interview. Visa interviews occur on Tuesday mornings only.

If you have any further questions, please email our office and include your case number.
