Medical Exam Instructions

All immigrant visa applicants, no matter their age, must have a medical examination before a visa can be issued.

Only a doctor authorized by the U.S. Embassy can perform this exam.

It is your responsibility to schedule a medical exam with one of the doctors in the list of Approved physicians (below) before your visa interview.

- Medical examination results from other physicians will not be accepted.
- Your visa expiration date will be the same as the expiration date of your medical exam (usually six months from the date of the exam. However, for certain medical conditions, it may only be three months).

IMPORTANT: Schedule your medical exam so it takes place at least 10 business days before your interview date to make sure the exam is complete and your visa is valid.

WARNING: No medical exam - No visa interview

If your medical examination report will not be finished in time for your interview (due to ongoing testing, treatment, or other reason), you cannot attend your visa interview.

- Your interview appointment must be rescheduled until you receive your completed medical examination report.
- You can contact visasbkk@state.gov to make a new appointment.

Medical Exam Instructions

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO IMMIGRANT AND FIANC(E) K VISA APPLICANTS ABOUT VACCINATION REQUIREMENTS

U.S. immigration law requires that immigrant visa applicants get certain vaccinations before a visa will be issued. These requirements are available at CDC.gov.

Panel physicians who conduct medical examinations must verify that visa applicants have met the vaccination requirements, or that it is medically inappropriate for the visa applicant to receive one or more of the listed vaccinations:

- ❖ Diphtheria, tetanus, and pertussis
- ❖ Measles, rubella, and mumps
- ❖ Polio (inactivated)
- ❖ Hepatitis A
- ❖ Hepatitis B
- ❖ Haemophilus influenzae type b(Hib)
- ❖ Varicella
- ❖ Pneumococcal for adults
- ❖ Pneumococcal for children
- ❖ Meningococcal
- ❖ Influenza
- ❖ Rotavirus

To help the doctor and avoid processing delays, every applicant should have their vaccination records ready for review at the medical examination. Here are the steps you should follow:

1. Obtain Vaccination Records: Consult with your regular healthcare provider to obtain a copy of your immunization record.
2. No Vaccination Record?: If you do not have a vaccination record, the panel physician will work with you to determine which vaccinations you may need to meet the requirements.
3. Vaccination Waivers: Certain waivers of the vaccination requirements are available if recommended by the panel physician.

Only a physician can decide which vaccinations are medically appropriate for you, according to your age, medical history, and current medical condition.

After the medical exam

When your examination is finished, the doctor will either:

- Give you the exam results in a sealed envelope or

If the doctor gives you a sealed envelope to carry to your interview, DO NOT OPEN IT!

- Bring the sealed envelope to your visa interview.
- If the doctor gives you a digital radiography CD, bring it with you to the interview.

For eMedical examinations, the panel physician will submit the result through the eMed system. In that case, you do not need to bring the medical exam to the interview.

IMPORTANT:

1. You must carry your radiography CD (x-rays) with you when you travel to the United States for the first time.
2. The medical report must be less than six months old when you enter the United States.

Interview Guidance

On the day of your interview

Please arrive at least 30 minutes before your scheduled appointment to give you enough time to go through security.

- If you are more than 30 minutes late for your appointment, it may be canceled and rescheduled.

A consular officer will interview you (and your family member beneficiaries) and decide whether you are eligible to receive a visa.

- As part of the interview process, ink-free, digital fingerprint scans will be taken.

Sending documents to the U.S. Embassy in Bangkok

If the Consular Officer requests additional documents during your interview, bring them to one of the drop-off locations for delivery to the U.S. Embassy.

Address your envelopes like this:

U.S. Embassy Bangkok
120-122 Wireless Road
Lumpini, Patumwan
Bangkok 10330
Attn: CONS/IV

Note: For cases fully processed through the Consular Electronic Application Center (CEAC) only

If you were instructed to upload all the required documents and financial forms to the CEAC system before the interview, please make sure they are all uploaded correctly.

Scan all the documents listed above into the CEAC system.

- However, you must still bring them to the interview.

If you do not upload all of the required documents to CEAC before your interview date, it will delay or prevent the issuance of your visa and the visa interview may be cancelled.

- The U.S. Embassy Bangkok will not upload these documents for you. If documents have not been uploaded correctly, your visa will be denied under INA 221(g) until the documents have been correctly scanned to this website.

Interview Guidance

Rescheduling or cancelling your interview

If you cannot attend your appointment, please email visasbkk@state.gov as soon as possible. There may be a significant wait before the next available appointment, so please try to attend on the date you were assigned.

- For some family-based and employment preference visa categories, a visa became available within the month that was scheduled by NVC.
- DV applicants should understand that the number of visas are limited and they must be issued by September 30 of the program year.

If you do not contact the U.S. Embassy or Consulate within one year of receiving your interview appointment letter, your case may be terminated and your immigrant visa petition cancelled. Any fees paid will not be refunded.

There is no guarantee that a visa will still be available on the date of your rescheduled interview. Please carefully review the Visa Bulletin before you ask to reschedule.

Security screening procedures

For a list of security regulations, please review our website.

- Cell phones are not allowed inside the embassy.
- You may be required to sit outside in a covered area while you wait.

Accompanying persons

Attorneys are not permitted to accompany clients into the waiting room or to their interview.

These are the only people who may accompany visa applicants to their interview:

- Applicants may bring ONE interpreter if they do not speak English or Thai well enough to participate.
- Children Under the Age of 18: A parent or legal guardian should accompany the minor to the visa interview. If a parent or legal guardian cannot attend the interview, another adult may bring a notarized letter from the parent or legal guardian authorizing him or her to be the parent's representative for the purpose of the interview.

Immigrant visa fees

For petitions filed locally or if the fee was not pre-paid to NVC, be prepared to pay the required visa fee at the time of the interview. You will be instructed to pay this fee after completing the intake on the day of your interview. If you are found ineligible to receive a visa, the application fee cannot be refunded.

Do not make travel plans outside of Thailand

If your visa is approved, we will keep your passport at the embassy while we prepare your immigration packet and print a visa for your passport. We will return your passport to you later via courier services only (see Step 1). If you have to travel within Thailand while your passport is still with us, please make sure you have another valid picture ID.

After Your Visa Interview

A consular officer can only make a decision on a visa application after reviewing the formal application and interviewing the applicant. The Consular Officer will tell you if your visa is approved or denied.

If your visa application is approved, your passport and visa will be returned to you by a designated courier company. Delivery usually takes about 10 business days after the interview. Your documents will be delivered to the address you registered with the Global Support Strategy \(GSS\) system.

Delays are common. Even if you are told that your visa application is approved during your interview, do not make travel plans, resign from your job, or sell your property until you physically receive your passport and U.S. visa.

There is no guarantee that you will receive a visa. Do not sell your house, car, or property, resign from your job or make non-refundable flight or other travel arrangements until you physically receive your immigrant visa.

If more information is needed

Sometimes a consular officer cannot make a decision on a visa application because he or she needs to review additional documents, or the case requires further administrative processing.

- When additional documents are requested, the consular officer will give you a refusal letter that asks you to submit them.
- It will include instructions about sending those documents to the embassy.

Administrative processing takes additional time after the interview. Most administrative processing is resolved within 60 days. However, the timing is different based on the circumstances of each case. Before you inquire about the status of administrative processing, please wait at least 60 days after your interview.

What happens after visa approval?

Passport, Visa, and Sealed Immigrant Packet

- We will place your immigrant visa on a page in your passport. Please review your visa to make sure there are no spelling errors.
- We will also give you a sealed envelope containing documents that you must give to U.S. immigration authorities when you arrive in the United States for the first time. Do not open it. You must carry it with you. Do not put it in your checked luggage.
- If you receive X-rays during your medical examination, carry those with you and give them to the U.S. immigration authorities.
- If your case is processed electronically, your visa will have an annotation such as “IV DOCS in CCD.” In that case, you do not need to carry a visa package to U.S. Immigration.

USCIS Immigrant Fee:

Everyone who is issued an immigrant visa overseas must pay an Immigrant Fee to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) before traveling to the United States. The fee is for processing your residency status and printing your Permanent Resident Card.

- The only people who do not have to pay this fee are children entering the United States under the Hague Process, returning residents, and people traveling on a fiancé(e) (K) visa.

After Your Visa Interview

When You Should Travel

You must enter the United States before the expiration date on your visa, which is usually six months from the date it is printed.

- Your visa cannot be extended and all fees are nonrefundable.
- The principal applicant must enter before or at the same time as other family members with visas.
- Unless they are eligible for benefits under the Child Status Protection Act, children who are issued a visa before turning 21 years of age must enter the United States before their 21st birthday to avoid losing their immigrant status.

Getting a Green Card

Your Form I-551 Permanent Resident Card (also called a green card) will be automatically mailed to the address in the United States that you wrote in your visa application form.

This is a very important document that proves you have permission to live in the United States.

- If you plan to travel outside the U.S. before your green card arrives, review the USCIS and CBP websites for rules about what documents you need to re-enter the country.
- We also recommend that you check with the airline to make sure you are within their rules.
- Once your card is issued, do not stay outside of the United States for more than one year. If you do, you will lose your status as a Lawful Permanent Resident.

Children's Issues

In the United States, children must have certain vaccinations before they can enroll in school. Bring your child's complete vaccination records with you to the United States.

- If your child is adopted, you have full custody because of a divorce, or you share custody with another parent, bring a copy of all applicable adoption or custody papers from the court with authority in your home country.
- You will need these papers (translated into English) for issues such as school enrollment, medical care, and eventual citizenship.

Information for New Immigrants: Please visit the USCIS web page for helpful information about moving to the United States. You can read their publication Welcome to the United States: A Guide for New Immigrants online.

Important Information: The Consular Section does not endorse or have a "special relationship" with any individual or business that offers advice or assistance with the visa process.

- No one can guarantee that a visa will be issued to you.
- All U.S. government forms are free.
- Many visa applicants lose money or are permanently barred from the United States because they were given misleading information or fraudulent applications were provided by visa consultants.

Any document or information presented in connection with your immigrant visa application may be investigated. If you misrepresent a material fact to the consular officer it may make you permanently ineligible to obtain a visa.

- By law, an immigrant visa petitioner may be imprisoned for up to five years, fined up to $250,000, or both, for entering a marriage contract in order to evade any provision of the U.S. immigration laws.
- In addition, a petitioner may be fined up to $10,000 and imprisoned for up to five years, or both, for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact or using any false document when they submit a petition.

Diversity Visa Applicants – Additional Information

If you are interviewing for a Diversity Visa (DV), all the above instructions apply to you. Schedule and attend a medical examination before your visa interview, enroll in the required courier service; and gather the required documents.

Reminder: Each year, DV visa case processing stops at the end of September.

Bring to your interview

In addition to the documents listed on the Pre-Interview Checklist in this package, DV applicants must also bring the following items to your visa interview:

- ☐ Appointment information printed from the Entrant Status Check on the E-DV website.
- ☐ Documents that show you have either a qualifying high school education OR two (2) years of qualifying work experience during the five (5) years immediately before your application. (This only applies to the principal applicant. More information is available online).
- ☐ Payment in cash of the $330 Diversity Visa Application Fee for each visa applicant.

Review your DV Lottery entry

Before your visa interview, review the data on your initial E-DV entry. On your initial E-DV application, your marital status must be correct.

- If you are legally married you must have listed your spouse, even if you are separated from him or her (unless your spouse is a U.S. citizen or Lawful Permanent Resident).
- Additionally, you must have listed ALL of your living children who are unmarried and under 21 years old. This includes your natural children, your spouse's children, or children you have formally adopted in accordance with the laws of your country.

Failure to list an existing spouse or children when you enter the Diversity Visa lottery will result in the denial of your visa and visas for your family.

- Any fees paid to the U.S. government in support of your visa applications are nonrefundable.
- If you did not include a child who was already born, or a spouse you were married to when you entered the lottery, you should not proceed with the visa application.
- You can review the eligibility requirements online.
