IMMEDIATE RELATIVE (IR) AND FAMILY PREFERENCE (F) VISA CLASSES

The Immigrant Visa Unit conducts visa interviews by appointment only. You should have been notified of your appointment date by the National Visa Center unless you are a K1 (Fiancé) visa applicant or expedited case. For K1 visas and expedited cases, the Immigrant Visa Unit will contact you directly with instructions on the visa process as soon as we receive your file from the National Visa Center.

IMPORTANT**

REGISTER YOUR APPOINTMENT ONLINE

You are required to register your appointment online at <https://ais.usvisa-info.com/en-gy/iv> BEFORE attending your interview. You should print the confirmation page of having successfully registered your appointment and bring it with you on your appointment date.

You must complete this requirement for all applicants applying for a visa (including children). Failure to comply with this instruction prior to attending your interview may significantly delay the processing of your visa application.

RESCHEDULING YOUR APPOINTMENT: If you are unable to attend your NVC scheduled appointment, you may reschedule your interview, after registering your original appointment, at <https://ais.usvisa-info.com/en-gy/iv>. To reschedule prior to your current appointment date, click the “Reschedule Appointment” link in your account. If your original appointment date has passed, you must use the “Missed My Appointment” link to request a new appointment.

You are responsible for ensuring that all required documents are available at the time of the interview. While you may have previously submitted the majority of required documents to the National Visa Center (NVC), there may still be additional documents that you need to bring with you to your interview. Failure to bring all required documentation to the interview will result in a delay in visa issuance or a visa refusal. The following documents must be available for the interview:

7. Evidence of financial support. Petitioners and joint sponsors commonly fail to understand what is required of them in terms of financial support. Please review the financial support forms extremely carefully as incorrectly filled out forms will result in visa refusal.
- An original signed Affidavit of Support form (I-864) from petitioner (employed or unemployed) and, if required, I-864/I-864A from joint sponsors and household members. Biological children of U.S. Citizens who will be under the age of 18 at the time of entry to the U.S. classified as IR2 or IR3 should complete the Form I-864W instead of Form I-864. A copy of the Affidavit of Support is required for each travelling applicant. The most recent versions of the I-864 Forms are available at <http://www.uscis.gov/forms>.
 - Petitioners and joint sponsors are encouraged to have their U.S. citizen or Legal Permanent Resident spouse (where applicable) complete an I-864A form in order to ensure all of their income can be counted towards supporting the visa applicant.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

FEES

The application fee is U.S $325.00 per person. If the petitioner has not paid the fees to NVC, the applicant must pay all applicable fees on the day of the appointment. The fee is non-refundable. Personal checks and credit union drafts are not acceptable. The fee may be paid in Guyana dollars or in U.S. dollars; only one currency may be used, not a combination of both. If you do not pay the fees, you will not be interviewed and must wait for another appointment date.

DOCUMENTS

All documents not in English must be accompanied by a certified translation into English. Translations must be certified by a competent translator and sworn to before a Notary Public.

Originals and one photocopy of all required civil documents for applicant and petitioner (birth, marriage and death certificates) listed on your appointment instruction sheet must be shown to the consular officer, who can certify the photocopies. If you do not bring photocopies, the originals will not be returned to you.

Guyana birth and marriage certificates must have been issued after 2010. Failure to bring recently issued civil documents will delay your case. All cases require birth certificates for both the petitioner and the beneficiary. If you have not obtained recently issued civil documents you should bring your older documents with you.

Birth certificates alone may not establish biological relationships. You may wish to bring historical documents, such as, baptismal certificates, school records, photos, etc.

If the relative who filed the petition has become a U.S. citizen, bring a notarized copy of the naturalization certificate or official notification from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) indicating that your relative is now a U.S. citizen.

FAMILY FIRST (F1) APPLICANTS WHO MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR MARRIAGE

This form is only applicable to the principal applicant (beneficiary) in F1 cases who are interested in getting married. Applicants who are interested in getting married are required to submit the completed form for a response prior to their immigrant visa appointment. Download the form at <http://photos.state.gov/libraries/guyana/19452/pdfs/F1-Marriage-Letter.pdf>.

MARRIAGE BASED APPLICANTS: IR-1, CR-1 visa classes

If you are a marriage based visa applicant, bringing your spouse (the petitioner) to your scheduled interview is likely to significantly shorten the amount of time needed to process your visa application. Therefore it is strongly recommended, but not required, that the petitioner attend the initial interview with you.

EVIDENCE OF ONGOING RELATIONSHIP

Unfortunately, we have found that there is great deal of fraud involved in relationships which confer immigration benefits. Certain types of documentation may be helpful in the adjudication of these types of cases. Please do not create evidence of your relationship solely to show the consular officer. Bring items that you have collected through the natural course of the relationship that convincingly shows you are in a relationship. Please do not include any lewd or pornographic pictures.

Possible evidence of relationship:

- Photos from you and your spouse taken before, during and after the marriage.
- Birth certificates of any children born to you and your spouse.
- Copy of passport pages from any trips your spouse has taken to visit you, along with the biographic page.

- Any other convincing documentation, which shows that you and your spouse have continued your relationship since your separation.
- Any other convincing documentation, which shows you and your spouse, have a joint residence and have formed an economic and material union. These may include but are not limited to, lease/mortgage held jointly, utility bills, evidence of joint accounts, etc.

Note: You are not required to bring all of these documents. Please bring whatever evidence you feel convincingly shows that you are in an ongoing relationship.

Relationship between parents and children:

Generally these documents should cover years prior to and a few years after the birth of the person whose relationship is in question.

- Hospital Records
- Baptismal Certificates
- School Records
- Childhood Immunization Records
- Bank Statement or other financial records
- Court Reports
- Correspondence - cards and letters
- Photographs

If you do not have any of the evidence listed above, the consular officer may recommend DNA testing. DNA testing must be supervised by this office.

Recently executed deed polls, testimonials or other new documents will not be acceptable for this purpose.

Please submit original documents and not photocopies. These original documents will be returned to you after they are reviewed.

Note: Minor children appearing for the interview with a relative or guardian – The guardian accompanying the child must have written consent from the petitioner to accompany the child to his/her interview. A photo ID will be required from the guardian or relative for entry into the Embassy.
