

Instructions for Immigrant Visa Applicants

Panama City, Panama

Police certificates – Certificate of Good Conduct from the Former Canal Zone.

Police records are available from the former Canal Zone before October 1, 1982. The applicant needs to have been born in the year 1966 or earlier and lived in the Canal Zone before 1982. If the above applies you will need to request a Certificate of Good Conduct from the Consular section prior to your scheduled interview. Instructions and an application will be sent with your appointment letter on how to obtain this information.